RUSSIANS REPULSED BY THE JAPANESE

Mikado's Soldiers Re-Capture Their Lost Ground.

RUSSIAN LOSS 4,000; JAPS' 20

Japanese Believed that the Russians Will Not Attempt Any More Flank Movements Soon—Russians Had 100,000 Soldiers in the Field.

General Oku's Headquarters, Jan. 30.—Noon, via Tien Tsin, Feb. 3.—The Russian attempt to turn General Oku's left flank has proved a complete failure. Following on the failure of the recent cavalry raid down the railway, it is thought, the Japanese will probably induce the Russians to await in the future the Japanese attacks.

The attempt, even with bombardment of other portions of the line or a cavalry movement around the flank, was doomed to failure from the start. The Japanese were at Heikouttai, but withdrew its small force from there and allowed the Russians to occupy the positions until they could move over enough men to make its recapitulation certain. The capture of this position was easily accomplished, although the loss was heavy. The casualties have not yet been reported, but it is believed that they will amount to full 3,000. Te Russians had five divisions engaged at Heikoutai and in that direction. They were driven back by less than two Japanese divisions.

Over 100,000 men were engaged in the Russian demonstration against the Japanese positions immediately east of Heikoutai, a force strong enough to have been successful as only about one division was sent against them. The Russian loss is estimated at over 4,000, and the prisoners say one regiment was practically annihilated.

The Japanese loss is placed at only 20, due to the fact that they remained in their trenches while the Russians were forced to cross open ground, solidly frozen, where the construction of shelter trenches was impossible. The ground being covered with snow was naturally a great disadvantage to the attacking force, as it was plainly visible against the white background for a long distance. The Japanese suffered the same disadvantages in the capture of Heikoutai. The weather was very cold during the fighting, the minimum being 6 degrees below zero and the maximum 14 degrees above zero. The Russians did not retreat north, but retired well out of range with no sign of further activity.

During the fighting the left wing of the Japanese was heavily bombarded from the Russian positions along the whole front. The Japanese made but a feeble reply.

News from Mukden.

Mukden, Feb. 1, via Tien Tsin, Feb. 3.—(Delayed in Transmission.)—All the natives of Holantao and Fuchinchuang, who were let through the lines during the Russian occupation, arrived at Mukden on Jan. 31, except a few who were killed in battle. The impression is general among the Russian troops on the right flank that either General Nodu or General Nogi was present at Sandiapu, where the Russians ascribe their greatest losses to cleverly concealed batteries behind the main works. The Japanese withdrew from their outer works at Sandiapu, which, at one time the Russians occupied. General Mitschenko was still advancing carrying out a flanking movement intending to cut the railway north of Liao Yang, and was taking outpost after outpost with prisoners when an order to retire came.

Although entrenched, the infantry was more than successfully combatted by the cavalry, as happened heretofore.

Society Woman Found Starving.

New York, Feb. 4.—Self-imprisonment in her home of former wealth and luxury in Flushing, L. I., Mrs. John Roland Knox, formerly of San Francisco, the young widow of a wealthy man well known a few years ago in the clubs of New York and Philadelphia, has been found delirious and starving. A faithful woman who had remained after reverses gave the alarm which brought neighbors to the scene. Three doctors who were called pronounced it a case of plain starvation and advised that Mrs. Enos be removed at once to a sanitarium, but this could not be done, as she was without means. Loss of relatives by death, accompanied by the loss of her fortune, reducing her from a life of luxury to one of poverty, is thought to have weakened her mind.

At first Cotton did not seem badly hurt, but later he became delirious and an examination showed his skull was fractured. Bowen was arrested and is now in the lockup at Thunderbolt.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 4.—This vicinity today is being hunted over by a posse in an attempt to find the murderer of George Williams, a young man in the village of Watchung, who was found dead in his sleigh on the road Tuesday. The stranger has disappeared and no motive for the crime can be learned.

BLIZZARD IS RAGING OVER THE COUNTRY

Harbor At New York Almost Blocked By Ice.

TEXAS IS COVERED WITH SLEET

Mercury Drops to Lowest Point in Many Places—If Cold Weather Continues, a Complete Suspension of Traffic is Feared.

New York, Feb. 4.—Marine traffic in the harbor and in the westerly end of Long Island sound was badly hampered today by ice. Only powerful steam craft could force their way through the fields of floating ice, composed of flocs broken from the ice sheet over the Hudson river and of the thick ice formed last night. As the wind and tide shifted, the ice moved rom on eside o the harbor and from one river to the other. Ferry boats were much delayed or altogether, tied up. Long Island sound for several miles east of Hell Gate, is packed with ice. Nothing was able to navigate but steam vessels and they make slow progress. Sailing vessels are practically frozen in.

Street car service in this city is demoralized and business is practically at a standstill. All trains are reported from two to six hours late.

The same conditions are reported from points in Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas. The latter reported the snow turned into sleet, and much suffering by tenants of small farm houses is reported. Live stock in some localities is suffering intensely from the sold and storm.

OHIO RIVER FULL OF ICE.

One Gorge Is Fifty Miles Long—Condition Is Serious.

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 4.—The worst conditions in many years prevails on the lower Ohio River. The gorge at Cloverport, Ky., which formed the first of the week is growing in size hourly and is said to be almost 50 miles in length. People are crossing the river at Cloverport on the gorge. The gorge at French Island is holding intact and a new gorge several miles in length formed at Newburg, Ind., 10 miles above the city and another is forming about half a mile below here, which promises to fill the channel of the river in a few hours.

A gorge is also reported at the Louisville and Nashville railroad bridge at Henderson, Ky. A gorge is forming at the mouth of the Wabash river that promises to become several miles in length.

YOUNG MAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Because His Sweetheart Broke Faith With Him.

New York, Feb. 4.—A man dressed in evening clothes and who said he was Henry Gavin, of Buffalo, staggered up to a ticket booth in the subway station at One Hundred and Forty-fifth street early today and calmly told the ticket seller that he had shot himself. When an ambulance arrived the surgeon found the condition of the young man to be serious. There were two bullet wounds in his body just below his heart, and while the surgeon was examining him he drew a 32 caliber revolver from his pocket with the remark that that was the weapon he did it with.

On the way to the hospital Gavin said he had tried to end his life because the young woman to whom he was engaged to be married had broken faith with him and that he had no desire to live.

Gavin's father committed suicide in 1858.

BIG FIRE AT EAST ST. LOUIS.

Six of the Largest Building Consumed by Flames—Lost $265,000.

East St. Louis, Ill., Feb. 4.—Six of the largest office and store buildings here were destroyed or badly damaged by fire early today and several persons were injured. The property loss is estimated at $265,000 partially covered by insurance. Several persons were reported injured. Street car traffic was completely tideup and the telephone service in the district was badly crippled.

All the available fire fighting assistance was sent from St. Louis.

The intense cold greatly retarded the effective fighting of the flames. The fire is said to have started in the Josephine building, which was entirely destroyed. The Josephine building was used for lodge headquarters, stores and offices, and was valued at $100,000. A number of families, who occupied flats in the upper floors of the Lucy building, were driven out into the frigid weather.

RENEWED DISORDERS OCCUR IN RUSSIA

Conflict At Lodz Occur Between Strikers and Police.

MAXIM GORKY IS NOT RELEASED

Over Three Hundred Have Been Killed at Warsaw Since Strike Begun—Coal famine Threatens the Industrial Centers.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 4.—Renewed disorders have occurred at Lodz, in Russian Poland, where a conflict between troops and strikers resulted in the killing of six persons and the wounding of 48. The disorders resulted from an attempt on the part of the strikers to prevent some men from returning to work. The troops were called out and fired into the strikers, who replied with revolver shots.

Strikes were begun today in the coal mining districts of Dombrowa and Sosnovice. As many important manufacturing centers are dependent on these mines for fuel, it is feared that the strike will have a serious effect on the industrial situation.

According to the best information obtainable, more than three hundred persons were killed during the disturbances in Warsaw. A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the report that Maxim Gorgy was released proves to be premature. Detailed dispatches relating to the fighting along the Shakhe river Jan. 25-29 show that the engagement was of larger proportions than earlier reports indicated.

Field Marshal Oyama reports that his losses were 7,000, while he estimates the Russian casualties at 10,000. The actual result of the fighting is not definitely determined, beyond the fact that it has not materially altered the positions of the two extensive lines and that the Russian attempt to advance was checked.

Warsaw, Feb. 4.—Serious disorders broke out today at Lodz, where 35,000 men are on strike. Some of the employes of a lace factory attempted to return to work and the remainder forcibly prevented them. The strong military patrol was summoned and attacked and fired at the strikers, who replied with revolver shots. It is reported over the telephone that the firing was continued at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Strikes were started this morning in the coal districts of Dombrowa and Sosnovice. It is feared they will have a serious effect on the industrial situation generally. Warsaw, Lodz and other important centers entirely dependent for their coal supply on these districts.

According to the best information obtainable, the official list of persons killed during the disturbances here contains over 300 names, in addition to many unidentified bodies lying at the receiving vaults in the cemetery. The unidentified dead will be buried tonight.

A group of soldiers outside a liquor store last night fired on passersby, killing a shopkeeper and wounding another man.

More Trouble is Feared.

Abbeville, Ga., Feb. 4.—Information at Rhine is to the effect that parties on both sides of the affair are heavily armed and bloodshed is likely. All the wounded in the difficulty are reported as doing fairly well, except Tom Coffee. He is not expected to live. Lee Roy Burnham was arrested yesterday, but was turned loose, as no one seemed disposed to swear out a warrant. Indications are that more trouble will follow.

Baby Left at Bishop's Door.

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 4.—This morning a baby boy, one month old, was found at the door of Bishop C. B. Galloway, in this city. The little one was wrapped in a blanket, and was very emaciated. The police are now investigating the case, but no clew to the parentage of the child has been discovered.

BIBLE CONFERENCE WILL OPEN TODAY

Massive Doors of Tabernacle Will be Unlocked This Afternoon.

DR. STEWART WILL PREACH

He is One the Greatest and Most Successful Evangelists Known to This Country, and Will no Doubt Attract a Large Congregation.

Today will be one of the great days for Gainesville, for it will mark the opening of the second annual session of the Florida Winter Bible Conference, which has been so anxiously anticipated for the past few weeks.

The Conference last year was a grand success, and Dr. Clarence B. Strouse, the manger, expects this season to far surpass that of the first session, inasmuch as matters have come down to a more systematic standpoint.

There are already several from various sections of the country here to attend the opening service of the Conference, and these will remain not only through the Conference, but during the entire course of exercises of the Christian Workers' Institute and the Chautauqua, which means six weeks of solid entertainment of the most refined nature. Dr. Strouse has exercised every effort to secure nothing but the most brilliant talent for each function, which is an assurance the season will be one full of interest and enjoyment.

The doors of the big tabernacle will be thrown open at 2 o'clock this afternoon, which will begin the session of the Conference. At 3 o'clock Rev. George R. Stewart of Cleveland, Tenn., will deliver the opening sermon. Dr. Stewart is one of the most successful evangelistic worker in the United States. He is an eloquent speaker, and those who fail to attend this service will miss a rare literary treat.

Dr. Strouse will be assisted in the opening of the Conference by the local ministry.

The Conference will again convene in the evening at 7:30 o'clock, when Dr. Stewart will likely deliver another stirring sermon.

Mrs. Munford of Philadelphia, one of the most celebrated gospel singers in the United States, has been secured to direct the choir.

Dr. Strouse desires to state that all who assisted the choir last season, as well as members of the various church choirs throughout the city, are expected to do so at this session, and it is to be hoped they will be on hand promptly at 2:30 this afternoon, and at the regular hours at each service thereafter.

Services will be held at the Tabernacle on Monday at 9:30 a. m., 8 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Announcements will be made daily through The Sun.

The Leading Hand.

In old days there were angels who came and took men by the hand and led them away from the city of destruction. We see no white winged angels now, but yet men are led away from threatening destruction: a hand is put into theirs which leads them forth gently toward a calm and bright land, so that they look no more backward, and the hand may be a little child's.—George Eliot.

HE MEANS SCOTT'S

Your doctor says you must take cod liver oil. Probably he means Scott's Emulsion because you cannot take the clear oil; no one can take the clear oil who needs cod liver oil. The doctor understands that and doubtless means Scott's Emulsion of cod liver oil which everybody can take because it is emulsified and prepared so that it can be very easily digested by the most sensitive stomach. Most everybody likes it.

ROAD MACHINERY HAS ARRIVED

When Government Expert Arrives Work Will Begin on Road.

THE MACHINERY IS MODERN

Comprises Everything Necessary for the Building of Hard Roads, and With the Material at Hand an Excellent Example Can be Made.

The road machinery of the United States government, department of road inquiry, which was consigned several days ago from Beaver Dam, Va., to Gainesville, has arrived, and is now in the yards of the Atlantic Coast Line, awaiting the arrival of Government Expert W. L. Spoon, who has been detailed to superintend the constructing the mile of object lesson road in Alachua county.

The machinery occupies two immense flat cars, and comprises a traction engine, roller, crusher, scraper and other machinery necessary to the making of good roads. It will demonstrate to the people of Alachua county not only what material to employ in the construction of their public highways, but also the class, weight and nature of machinery to be used.

The official records of the Board of County Commissioners, at their meeting in December of the past year, when the order was made that the sum of $1,000 be appropriated to defray the county's proportion of expense in the construction of this mile of sample road, show that the road will be built on the Gainesville-Newberry road, one mile West from Hog Town Creek. There has been some discussion as to whether the board at that meeting designated a route, but the records are evident that this route was selected and the money deposited for that purpose.

The work will no doubt be under the personal direction of Col. Spoon, who is now superintending a similar experiment in Duval county. As soon as this is completed, which cannot be longer than two or three days, he will come at once to Gainesville and take up the work here.

Colonel Spoon, who is a practical road-builder, has been in the employ of the government in this capacity for many years. He is so well versed in his occupation that he can, by merely picking up a stone or any other substance, determine whether it would be suited for road-building. He paid Alachua county a high compliment when he was here a few weeks ago selecting material by the statement that this county contained as fine road-building material as could be found in the United States, and the government verified this statement in an analysis, in which the department reported that the deposits of material from Alachua were the best found in Florida.

As soon as Colonel Spoon arrives work will begin, and the road will be completed in a short time.

WILLIAMS GOT WRONG.

Tried to Kill Companions, and Now Must Suffer the Consequences.

Deputy Sheriff John A. Thomas of Willeford arrived in the city Friday evening, having in custody a negro who hails under the name of Alva Williams.

Williams, it is alleged, attempted to break up a negro festival at Willeford Thursday night by shooting into the room. He used a double-barreled breech-loading gun for the purpose, and for a few moments matters were a little animated in the gay and festive hall. When quiet was finally restored it was discovered that three men, companions of Williams, who were attending the festival, had been injured, but not seriously.

Williams was arrested and given a hearing Friday before the justice of that district, the charge having been assault with intent to murder. He was committed to jail, in default of bail, to await the action of the spring term of the circuit court.

BANDIT SINCE TEN YEARS OLD.

Remarkable Confession of Man Now in Jail at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Feb. 4.—Andrew Kurowski, for whose arrest a reward of $500 was offered some time ago in Chicago, is in custody here and has made a confession that he is a "pal" of Marks and Vandine, the Chicago car barn bandits, who were hanged last year.

"I came to St. Louis," he said, "to plunder and rob. I would have started out Wednesday night, but I was too sleepy. I have shot 15 men, some fatally. I have been in the reformatory at Pontiac, Ill., twice, once for robbery and assault to kill and once for a street hold-up in Cincinnati. Marks and Vandine were pals of mine. I knew them for three years. I have been a bandit ever since I was 10 years old. I must have been born one. When I came to St. Louis Wednesday morning from Memphis, where I kept the police in hot water for three months, I planted $2,000 worth of booty."

The police learned that Kurowski was coming to St. Louis from the Chicago detectives, who evidently intercepted a letter written by Kurowski while he was in Memphis.

CUBAN CABINET RESIGNS.

Five Members Hand Their Resignations to the President.

Havana, Feb. 4.—All five members of the cabinet visited President Palma and presented their resignations. They stated that they desired, since President Palma had announced his allegiance to the moderate party, to open the way for him to make whatever selections for cabinet officers he chooses under the new conditions.

President Palma courteously but emphatically declined to consider the resignations, and added that his joining the moderate party was purely a personal act, and did not necessarily affect the cabinet.

The cabinet members, however, are well aware, however, that there will be changes after consultations between President Palma and the moderate leaders.

Men in search of real estate have been quite numerous in Gainesville recently, and activity in building goes on with more than ordinary regularity. INTERSTATE COMMERCE.

Undoubtedly the unanimous decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Beef Trust case, says The Wall Street Journal, marks a new advance, not only in the application of the Sherman anti-trust law, but also in the movement towards government supervision of the corporations. Its importance, therefore, lies not merely in the fact that it strikes a blow at one of the most powerful and unpopular combinations in the country. It is perhaps not too much to say that the step from this decision to federal incorporations or federal franchises, as is proposed by Commissioner Garfield, is not a long one.

Our present interest in the decision, however, is directed to the question which was raised in this case as to what constitutes interstate commerce. In substance, it was concluded that a purchase of cattle consummated in one State was not interstate commerce, although the cattle may have been transported to other States and converted there into dressed meat for the market. It was contended further that the sale of these dressed meats, in one State, did not constitute interstate commerce, even if after the sale they were exported to other States for use. The supreme court, however, brushed aside all such technicalities as these. As Judge Holmes said in his decision: "When cattle are sent for sale from a place in one State with the expectation that they will end their transit, after purchase, in another, and when in effect they do so, with only the interruption necessary to find a purchaser at the stock yards, and when this is a typical, constantly recurring course, the current thus existing is a current of commerce among the States, and the purchase of the cattle is a part and incident of such commerce."

This decision makes clearer than ever the scope of interstate commerce. A great corporation, or a great combination, cannot any longer escape the operation and penalties of federal law by contending that it is doing business strictly within State lines. It may organize different companies for different States, and may have plants established in different sections of the country, and endeavor if possible to localize its business, but if the connection between these different companies and different places can be shown, the whole concern becomes a part of interstate commerce. Judge Holmes does well to lay emphasis upon the intent of a combination.

The fact is that nearly all business transacted in the United States, excepting small retail trade, has become interstate commerce in character. When a manufacturer and merchant sends out his circulars and letters soliciting trade to other States, he is engaged in interstate trade. Interstate commerce is not merely transportation; it is business that covers more States than one.

Let politics rest for a while, is the remark many of our Republican friends make, since they were so successful in the last campaign; yet they are always talking about a campaign of education, with the same old text books they have used since they discarded silver and took up the gold standard. But the Socialists, who made such large gains at the last presidential election, are not idle, and even now they are stumping Florida in the interest of that party. The way to become educated is to keep busy along the lines that will show the people which is the proper way to administer the affairs of government for the best interests of the whole country.

Drink plenty of water between meals.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops, to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

CARNEGIE TURNED DOWN SUGGESTION

Dr. Hodges Suggested a Contribution for Public Hospital.

LIBRARIES KEEP HIM BUSY.

The Man Who Says It's a Disgrace to Die Rich Says He is Too Busy Making Contributions and Building Marble Front Libraries.

The reporter learned Saturday that Dr. J. Harrison Hodges has had some correspondence with Andrew Carnegie, the great millionaire, in reference to the building of a public hospital for Alachua county. Some weeks ago Dr. Hodges wrote Mr. Carnegie and explained the need of a public hospital here and the efforts which were being made to secure one, and the difficulties encountered in raising the necessary funds, and mildly suggested that a contribution would be thankfully received.

Mr. Carnegie, who says it is a disgrace to die rich, writes that he is busy giving away his money to build free public libraries and connot give any assistance to hospitals now. Dr. Hodges received a letter from him to this effect a few days ago in which he said: "My field of free public libraries proves more than wide enough to absorb all the time and attention I can give and I must restrict myself to it."

We do not presume to advise Mr. Carnegie what to do with the millions which he says he will give away before he dies, but it would seem that some of his many millions given to the hospitals would do the people more good than all the marble library buildings he could erect. The relief of suffering and affording the facilities of restoring sick and injured people to better health, would be an active every-day act of charity. The erection of marble library buildings is a display of wealth that does the actual needy people of the land little good. But it is Mr. Carnegie's money, and if he cannot see his way clear to help build our public hospital, we must build it ourselves without his assistance. Contributions for this purpose may be given to B. P. Richards, treasurer, at H. F. Dutton & Company's bank.

SCHOOL IS O. K.

Dr. J. L. Kelley Pays the Hatchett Creek School Fine Compliment.

Dr. J. L. Kelley, superintendent of public instruction for Alachua county, has returned from an official visit to Hatchett Creek school, near Orange Heights.

Superintendent Kelley states that, while the school is small, he found everything in excellent condition, and good work being done. The enrollment is sixteen, with an average attendance of fourteen, which is indeed a creditable showing. The school is under the direction of Miss Josephine McComb, one of the most efficient and most popular young lady teachers in the county.

Dr. Kelley desires The Sun to state that he proposes to pay an official visit to all the schools of the county as soon as his health and his duties will permit. He has been unfortunate, in that he has been indisposed for the past three weeks, but he has the educational interests of the county at heart, and proposes to make official visits at regular intervals as soon as he can get his affairs properly adjusted.

Important to Land Owners.

Under the above heading will be published one time notice of application for tax deed to all lands not officially published in The Sun. Some persons publish these notices in papers of meagre circulation in order to give as little publicity as possible, and we give these notices in order to protect property owners who take The Sun:

Notice is given that on February 27th application will be made for tax deed to the following described land, situated, lying and being in Alachua county: NW¼ of NW¼, Sec. 36, Township 10, Range 18, 40 acres, assessed to Jas. Colgan; NW¼ of NE¼, Sec. 36, Township 10, Range 18, assessed as unknown; NE¼ of NW¼, Sec. 35, Township 10, Range 18, assessed to T. C. Kittles; W½ of NW¼, Sec 35, Township 10, Range 18, assessed to C. E. Farrell.

Mr. Williams' Funeral.

Parties arriving from Alachua Saturday afternoon state that the funeral of Furman E. Williams, the sad death of whom has already appeared in this paper, was largely attended Saturday morning, friends and relatives from every section of the county being present to pay the last tribute of esteem and respect to the deceased.

The interment was in the Newnansville cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. W. C. Foster, the Baptist minister of Alachua. At the conclusion of this service, the funeral was held under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, of which deceased has been for many years a prominent member.

The death of Mr. Williams will be sadly felt not only in Alachua, but in other sections of the county, where he was well and favorably known.

J. S. Cassie will open a general store at Raiford in a few weeks. Jim's many friends here wish him the success he deserves.

The bank of this place is closed on account of the death of F. E. Williams, he being vice-president.

In the death of F. E. Williams, which occurred at noon on Thursday, Alachua county has lost one of its most prominent and strongest citizens. No death could have been felt more, and it seems that it has effected business generally. Mr. Williams was a man greatly liked by the people—one who was ever ready to help those who deserved help—and was a stimulating post in business circles in our city. Hundreds of friends have viewed the remains, and a large number followed the remains to their last resting place at Newnansville Saturday at 9 o'clock.

John Williams of Grove Park, father of the accused man, having intervened and settled that matter by returning to Conductor Peake the amount lost and paying the costs of the proceedings.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women." ITCHING ECZEMA

In July, 1883, I began to break out with Eczema on my head, legs and arms, and began treatment with local doctors, but did not get much relief. They said the disease had become chronic. I then quit them and tried various ointments and soaps for another two years, but as soon as cold weather came I was as bad off as ever, so I finally decided to let medicine alone, and for twelve or thirteen years did nothing towards curing the Eczema, except bathing. This seemed to do about as much good as anything I had tried.

During the time I lost about one-half of my hair. I began S. S. S. doubtful of a cure, because the disease had run so long, but soon discovered your medicine was doing me good, and continued to take it. I used seven bottles, when I was completely cured, not having a single spot on my body, which before was almost completely covered. F. C. NORFOLK.

The head, feet and hands are usually the parts affected, though the disease appears on other parts of the body. While external applications allay the itching and burning temporarily, it is the acids thrown off by the blood that cause the irritation and eruptions upon the skin. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. The engineer and fireman leaped from the engine while going at full speed, both being injured. The convicts ran the engine 5 miles, where they abandoned it and took to the woods. One of the fugitives is Addison Tippens, who was sentenced for life for murdering his father.

Tobacco Growers Enter Protest

Amsterdam, Ga., Feb. 4—At a large meeting of the tobacco growers of Decatur county, a memorial to the senate and house of representatives of the United States was adopted, protesting against the passage of the Curtis bill, providing that sugar and tobacco from the Philippines shall be admitted at 25 per cent of the rates specified in the Dingley tariff law. Decatur county is an extensive grower of the finest tobacco and it is urged in the memorial that the passage of the bill would paralyze the tobacco industry in this country.

The Triumphant Spider.

A little garter snake about five inches long went to sleep in a wheelwright shop, and a big black spider spun a web around the reptile. When the little snake awoke it was literally in the toils and began to struggle. It finally managed to free its body, but not its head. Meanwhile the spider was industriously spinning fresh threads, stopping occasionally to give the snake a bite. Then the real fight commenced and lasted for an hour. The snake could not get away, but it tried its best to bite the spider, without avail. Weakened by its futile efforts and the successive stings of the insect, it gradually ceased to struggle and finally died. Then the spider, presumably triumphant, disappeared under the wall.

The Buttered Side.

A woman who is a close observer of children was out walking in the country one day, she relates, when she saw a little girl with solemn big blue eyes sitting on a doorstep munching a huge slice of bread and butter. The only peculiarity about the operation was that she was holding the buttered side of the bread toward the ground.

"Why do you hold your bread and butter that way?" asked the lady.

"Tatter," whispered the little maiden confidentially, "mamma says bread always falls butter side down, so if you hold it butter side down to start with and then drop it, why, of course

AN ODD FISH.

Queer Marine Monster a Natural Enemy to Whales.

While operating at a fishery in Admiralty island, Alaska, one summer my attention and the attention of the fishing crew were almost daily attracted to a large marine creature that would appear in the main channel of Seymour canal and our immediate vicinity. There are large numbers of whales of the species rorqual there, and the monster seemed to be their natural enemy. The whales generally travel in schools, and while at the surface to blow one would be singled out and attacked by the fish, and a battle was soon in order.

It is the nature of the rorqual to make three blows at intervals of from two to three minutes each, and then sound deep and stay beneath the surface for thirty or forty minutes. As a whale would come to the surface there would appear always at the whale's right side and just about where his head would connect with the body a great long tail or fin, "judged by five fishermen and a number of Indians, after seeing it about fifteen times at various distances," to be about twenty-four feet long, two and one-half feet wide at the end and tapering down to the water, where it seemed to be about eighteen inches in diameter, looking very much like the blade of the fan of an old fashioned Dutch windmill.

The great club was used on the back of the unfortunate whale in such a manner that it was a wonder to me that every whale attacked was not instantly killed. Its operator seemed to have perfect control of its movements and would bend it back until the end would touch the water, forming a horseshoe loop; then with a sweep it would be straightened and brought over and down on the back of the whale with a whack that could be heard for several miles. If the whale was fortunate enough to submerge itself before the blows came, the spray would fly for a distance of a hundred feet from the effect of the stroke, making a report as loud as a yacht's signal gun.

What seemed most remarkable to me was that, no matter which way the attacked whale went or how fast (the usual speed is about fourteen knots), that great club would follow right along by its side and deliver those tremendous blows at intervals of about four or five seconds. It would always get in from three to five blows at each of the three times the whale would come to the surface to blow. The whale would generally rid itself of the enemy when it took its deep sound, especially if the water was forty fathoms or more deep. During the day the attack was always offshore, but at night the whales would be attacked in the bay and within 400 yards of the fishery.

I do not know of any whales being killed, but there were several that had great holes and sores on their backs. Questioning the Indians about it, I was told that there was only one, that it had been there for many years and that it once attacked an Indian canoe and with one stroke of the great club smashed the canoe into splinters, killing and drowning several of its occupants.—Forest and Stream.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, for I have used it with perfect success. My child, Garland, is subject to severe attacks of croup, and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by all druggists.

The Blameless One.

Mrs. Colburn removed her outer garments and seated herself with a thud in her rocking chair in the front window. "I declare, I never saw such a gadder as that young woman the minister married in all my life!" she said jerkily as she ran her darning ball down into the heel of Mr. Colburn's gray stocking.

"I can't go over to Mis' Deacon Graves' of an afternoon or down to the store in the morning that I don't either find her there or see her, coming or going, three times out o' five!

"She's an awful slatey, too," continued Mrs. Colburn, pulling at a knot in her darning cotton till it broke and her elbow flew back against the sharp edge of the table. "I can't look over at her front window but what she turns her eyes this way inside o' five minutes. Don't sit there looking so numb, William! Can't you see I've half killed myself? Fetch me the liniment, quick!"—Youth's Companion.

Siam.

The worth thing that can happen to a man in Siam is to get into debt, from which there is never any escape, owing to the exorbitant interest charged. Once in debt there is no appeal, the debtor being stripped of his clothes and compelled to work in fetters, generally for the rest of his life, to pay the interest. Drunkards are not permitted to give evidence in the law courts of Siam. The Buddhist priests, clad in yellow robes, are to be seen everywhere in Bangkok, and it is quite common for young men to enter the priesthood, which affords them an easy and luxurious existence, owing to the liberality of the populace toward any one sanctioned to the service of Buddha.

A Chinese Columbus.

The belief in a Chinese Columbus was first allowed by scholars only in the first half of the last century. The claim is that a Buddhist priest in the fifth century crossed the Pacific to this continent and returned, making a written report of his discovery. The report still exists. It was translated into French in 1791 by M. de Guignes. It gave a narrative of a voyage eastward by a priest for 20,000 li, where he found a country which he named Fusang. People similar to the Indians were described, as well as American plants. The only doubt about the matter is as to the distance meant by 20,000 li. The priest may have reached only some island in the Pacific ocean.

Poisons in Food.

Perhaps you don't realize that many pain poisons originate in your food, but some day you may feel a twinge of dyspepsia that will convince you. Dr. King's New Life Pills are guaranteed to cure all sickness due to poisons of undigested food—or money back. 25c at all drug stores. Try them.

Why Leaves Turn Brown.

The green matter in the tissues of a leaf is composed of two colors, red and blue. When the sap ceases to flow in the autumn the natural growth of the tree is retarded, and oxidation of the tissues takes place. Under certain conditions the green of the leaf changes to red. Under different aspects it takes on a yellow or brown hue. The difference in color is due to the difference in combinations of the original constituents of the green tissues and to the varying condition of climate, exposure and soil. Maples and oaks have the brightest color.

Compromising.

Charles—She is suing her late employer's estate for $20,000. Henry—On what ground? Charles—On the ground that on four different occasions he said to her, "We are having fine weather," with the accent on the "we."—Brooklyn Life.

A Broad Hint.

The barber (gathering customer and gazing out of window)—I tell you, sir, the man who shaves himself keeps the bread and butter out of some poor barber's mouth. The Customer (fiercely)—And incidentally the lather out of his own!—Puck.

NOTICE.

To whom it may concern.
